IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO EASTERN DIVISION

ANGELIQUE INCORVIA,) CASE NO. 1:22 CV 1911 Plaintiff,)
v.) JUDGE DONALD C. NUGENT COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL) SECURITY,) Magistrate Judge
) Jennifer Dowdell Armstrong
Defendant.) MEMORANDUM OPINION
) AND ORDER

This matter is before the Court upon the Report and Recommendation of Magistrate

Judge Jennifer Dowdell Armstrong. (Docket #11.) On October 25, 2022, Plaintiff, Angelique

Incorvia, filed her Complaint challenging the final decision of the Commissioner of Social Security denying her applications for Supplemental Security Income ("SSI") and Disability

Insurance Benefits ("DIB"). Pursuant to Local Rule 72.2, the case was referred to Magistrate Judge Armstrong.

On September 20, 2023, the Magistrate Judge issued her Report and Recommendation.

For the reasons set forth therein, the Magistrate Judge recommends that the Court VACATE

AND REMAND the Commissioner's decision for further consideration. On September 26,

2023, the Commissioner filed a Response Brief, indicating no objection would be filed. (Docket #12.)

Standard of Review for a Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation

The applicable standard of review of a magistrate judge's report and recommendation depends upon whether objections were made to that report. When objections are made to a report and recommendation of a magistrate judge, the district court reviews the case de novo. FED. R. CIV. P. 72(b) states:

The district judge must determine de novo any part of the magistrate judge's disposition that has been properly objected to. The district judge may accept, reject, or modify the recommended disposition; receive further evidence; or return the matter to the magistrate judge with instructions.

The text of Rule 72(b) addresses only the review of reports to which objections have been made; it does not indicate the appropriate standard of review for those reports to which no objections have been properly made. The Advisory Committee on Civil Rules commented on a district court's review of unopposed reports by magistrate judges. In regard to subsection (b) of Rule 72, the advisory committee stated: "When no timely objection is filed, the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." FED. R. CIV. P. 72 advisory committee's notes (citation omitted).

The U.S. Supreme Court stated in Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140, 150 (1985): "It does not appear that Congress intended to require district court review of a magistrate judge's factual or legal conclusions, under a de novo or any other standard, when neither party objects to those findings."

Conclusion

The Court has carefully reviewed the Report and Recommendation and agrees with the findings set forth therein. The Report and Recommendation of Magistrate Judge Armstrong (Docket #11) is ADOPTED in its entirety.

The Commissioner's decision is VACATED AND REMANDED for additional consideration consistent with Magistrate Judge's Report and Recommendation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DONALD C. NUGEN

United States District Judge
